Chapter Summary

The importance of the book of Isaiah within the writings of the Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha is clearly indicated by the many references to Isaiah that they contain. This chapter examines the use of Isaiah in the Ascension of Isaiah and other texts that share this tradition. The Ascension of Isaiah focuses on two topics, the martyrdom of Isaiah and his role as a visionary. The presentation of Isaiah has been built up on the tradition that Isaiah had seen God. The tradition of the martyrdom of Isaiah is alluded to in several other pseudepigraphical writings, but it is only in the Paraleipomena of Jeremiah that the allusion is linked to any kind of prophecy in itself. Like Isaiah, Jeremiah suffers a martyr's death because of his proclamation of the coming of the Son of God.

Keywords: Apocrypha; Ascension of Isaiah; Paraleipomena of Jeremiah; Pseudepigrapha
