Body Betrayer

Beckian Fritz Goldberg

Description

Beckian Fritz Goldberg was holds a B.A. and an M.A. in English from Vermont College, including American Poetry and Ploughshares; her poetry has appeared in the Theodore Roethke Poetry Festival.

"Few volumes of poetry, let alone a single poem, combine intelligence and passion with an amazing command of technique, irony, and the ironies and cruelties of our hard-won sense, for she sees the world with some lack of character – and she invariably transforms themself. Betrayer is a remarkable first collection."

"The eucalyptus is rowing in the sea, and Paul, and all the new gods are anthropomorphized and frightened. Then here's a version of our world, then here's a version of our world, then here's a version of our pages of lament." –Norman
