Abstract This book explores the factors behind – and the implications of – the 2006 coup. It brings together contributors from a range of disciplines – including political scientists, anthropologists, historians, sociologists, linguists, literary scholars, journalists, lawyers, soldiers and politicians – including deposed Prime Ministers Laisenia Qarase and Frank Bainimarama. End All Coups? is essential reading for those with an interest in the contemporary history of Fiji, politics in the Pacific and the role of the military in society.
