Abstract

Feeling uncertain? Undecided? Unfulfilled? Take heart, the Tide will relieve you of your existential burden – after all how hard could it be when we ourselves have risen from the dead (metaphorically speaking) to be wondering how in the name of literary promises you’ve come to this glorious publication – fear not, gentle reader, this is no mirage overwhelming longing for literary completion, the truth that v upon you is that you, yes you gentle reader, have been told a was indeed 'Endings'. This was not done out of malice by our misinformation, but we feel that this has allowed us to return phoenix rising from the ashes, Tide 2013 has returned heartier plumage than ever before, and we will not be repeating the m year there is no theme. Ah but there is anxiety these days, gen become of the publishing industry in this age of the Internet a electronic markets? Print publishing is an unwieldy and aging weight of new technologies and methods, but fear not. We are flourishing, and we of the Tide 2013 team have gained the skill of traditional publishing in the (metaphorical) face. Trust us, a for this copy you're reading, please do so (that's a good part o we have charts and everything). Ah, but you may be antsy abo does that mean we're incoherent? Flakey? Disorganised? No. V we do have atmosphere. In the poetry and prose within these that lurk on the edges of esoteric knowledge (or so we might s essays about them), and of course there is the spirit of indefat has been integral to Tide throughout its iterations. Be comfort on.
