Date: 2014-12-03

Abstract:

This project establishes a historic context for, and determines the eligibility of, the nomination of the Eliza Withington House to the National Register of Historic Places as a historic single dwelling accompanying nomination form. Sources used for this project include county assessor records, court documents, census records, city and county histories, maps, historic photographs, newspaper contemporary biographical texts and works on architectural history. The George and Eliza Withington House is eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places under Criteria B and C. Under Criterion B, the Withington House is eligible as the home of Ione Valley pioneers George and Eliza Withington. The house is eligible under Criterion C for embodying the distinctive characteristics of the Greek Revival style of architecture.
