Onboarding: How to Get Your New Employees Up to Speed in Half the Time
 Authors: G. Bradt and M. Vonnegut Publisher: John Wiley & Sons, New Jersey
 [ILLUSTRATION OMITTED]  Onboarding: How to Get Your New Employees Up to Speed in Half the Time aims to broaden the perspective of hiring managers regarding their role in assimilating new employees. The authors emphasize three key responsibilities of the hiring manager: 1) pre-work prior to candidate selection; 2) communication and stakeholder analysis; and 3) leadership to enable and inspire new hires. Within this framework, they suggest an array of topics often ignored in the rush to complete the hiring transaction and get the new hire onto payroll. The authors urge action, and include practical tools in downloadable MSWord documents to track implementation. While the book stops short of fulfilling my need for a true guide...
