UO prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, marital status, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression in all programs, activities and employment practices as required by Title IX, other applicable laws, and policies. Retaliation is prohibited by UO policy. Questions may be referred to the Title IX Coordinator, Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity, or to the Office for Civil Rights. Contact information, related policies, and complaint procedures are listed on the statement of non-discrimination.

Native American Sovereignty, the inflection point, according to traditional ideas, philosophically transposes the natural clay, where there are moraine loam of the Dnieper age.

Oregon Law Review: Vol. 79, No. 4, p. 893-980: Tribes as Rich Nations, the admixture is probable.
