Abstract

According to EUSOMA position paper ¹ the requirements of a specialist breast unit TM, each breast unit should have a core team made up of health professionals who have undergone specialist training in breast cancer.

In this paper, on behalf of EUSOMA, authors have identified the standards of training in breast cancer, to harmonise and foster breast care training in Europe.

The aim of this paper is to contribute to the increase in the level of care in a breast unit, as the input of qualified health professionals increases the quality of breast cancer patient care.
