Church Records

Baptist

Early Baptist churches (with years constituted):

- Mill Creek (1766).^[6] A historical marker places the organization at "prior to 1742."^[7]
- Timber Ridge (1809)^[6]

The 10,000 name petition (dated 16 October 1776) has been digitized at the Library of Congress website . It was signed by people from all over Virginia who wanted an end to persecution of Baptists by the Established Church. Baptists and Baptist sympathizers alike signed the petition. To find your ancestor in this record, first check Hall's transcription in the Magazine of Virginia Genealogy (Vols. 35-38, with annotations in Vol. 39), which is available online at Ancestry ($). It is also available in book form at the Family History Library: FHL Book 975.5 B2vs v. 35-39 . Then proceed to the Library of Congress website to see the original images.

Berkeley County fell within the bounds of the Kettocton Association.

Land and Property Records

Land and property records can place an ancestor in a particular location, provide economic information, and reveal family relationships. Land records include: deeds, abstracts and indexes, mortgages, leases, grants and land patents.

See West Virginia Land and Property for additional information about early West Virginia land grants. After land was transferred to private ownership, subsequent transactions were usually recorded at the county courthouse and where records are currently housed.
