Abstract:

The term "globalization" generates much passion everywhere, among both supporters and detractors. To the e globalization enables us to break down cultural, ethnic, and religious barriers and brings us into increased hum: good development; insofar as it results in cultural and economic hegemony by the West, it is a bad thing. Religio to play in "humanizing" globalization, but in order to play this role it must become self-critical regarding its pas still present--use of religious violence, it needs as well to make human dignity the foundation of its belief system
