Abstract

The Anchor began in 1887, and was first issued weekly. Covering national and campus news alike, the Hope College newspaper has grown over the years to encompass dozens of editors, reporters, and staff. Each Wednesday of each academic school year (with few exceptions), the newspaper is distributed across campus. Occasionally, the volume numbering is irregular. An index to the full collection is available in the Joint Archives of Holland. For the most current information, see The Anchor online.
