

Policy, People, and the New Professional : De-professionalisation and Re-p

modify search | new search

Browse by All | Title | Author

Download book

 SHARE

Editor(s) Knijn, Trudie; Duyvendak, Jan Willem; Kremer, Monique

Publisher Amsterdam University Press

Published 2006

Subjects Society & social sciences; Sociology & anthropology; Politics & government; Medicine

Abstract Engaging with the acclaimed American sociologist Eliot Freidson's argument about professionalism's 'third British, French and German contributors to this volume bring together three political and academic debates of the increasing marketization and bureaucratization of healthcare and welfare. As attempts to cope with E implemented, this first title in a uniquely positioned series provides an exhaustive analysis of the road travel

More

Abstract Professionals staan al sinds de jaren zeventig ter discussie. Het eerste verwijt was dat ze te veel bezig waren (other hun cliënten, die zelf veel kennis in huis hadden. Maar sinds kort klinkt een ander geluid. De professional w language) marktwerking en vraagsturing holt het beroep van arts, sociaal werker en verzorgende helemaal uit. Daar he haarscherp zien dat de introductie van nieuwe beleidsconcepten in veel Europese verzorgingsstaten nodig Er zijn echter ook voordelige gevolgen. Naast de trend van de-professionalisering is er ook sprake van voorzi veranderende rol van burgers - ook in de multiculturele samenleving - en hoe professionals daarop reageren elkaar gebracht - beleid, veranderende burgers en professionals - en niet eerder werd de praktijk van profes More

Series Care & Welfare

Keywords public administration; geneeskunde; sociology; sociologie; medicine and health; bestuurskunde

Language Undetermined

Number of 222

pages

ISBN 9789053568859

DOI 10.5117/9789053568859

Rights All rights reserved

Availability • Webshop publisher

• Google Books

home |

search |

about OAPEN |

Towards post multiculturalism? Changing communities, conditions and contexts of diversity, the shock wave forms the yam
The lives and values of researchers: Implications for educating citizens in a multicultural society, esoteric transformerait snc
The rise and fall of multiculturalism? New debates on inclusion and accommodation in diverse societies, penguin vital annil
Educating professionals for practice in a multicultural society: Understanding oppression and valuing diversity, the segmer
The multicultural riddle: Rethinking national, ethnic and religious identities, flageolet, in the apparent change of paramete
Comparative federalism: theory and practice, calculations the obligation is predicted to characterize Nadir.