

Browse the Commons

Collections

Disciplines

Authors

Links

Buffalo State

E. H. Butler Library

Buffalo State Archives

Search

Enter search terms:

Advanced Search

Notify me via email or RSS

For Contributors

Author FAQs

Submission Guidelines

Submit Your Work

Links

Home > International Center for Studies in Creativity > Creative Studies

CREATIVE STUDIES GRADUATE

Writing a Thirty Minute Television Script

Mark L. Lauck, Buffalo State College

Date of Award

12-2006

Access Control

Open Access

Degree Name

Creative Studies, M.S.

Department

International Center for Studies in Creativity

Department Home page

<http://creativity.buffalostate.edu/>

Abstract

The goal of the project was to write a twenty two to thirty page television script series. The script is the basis to develop a series of thirty to sixty minute episodes. The initial script is centered around the eternal battle between good and evil in an environment where non baptized or lost souls come to rest before entering heaven. The place is called Limbo. It is a neutral ground between good and evil have equal influence. The only thing keeping the peace from exploding is the Truce, a series of rules both sides must abide by.

Recommended Citation

Lauck, Mark L., "Writing a Thirty Minute Television Script" (2006).

Cookies are used by this site. To decline or learn more, visit our cookies page.

Close