Intimate death: how the dying teach us how to live.

Author(s) : Hennezel, M. de

Book : Intimate death: how the dying teach us how to live. 1997 pp.xv + 182 pp.

Abstract : This book, written by a psychologist who worked with a team of nurses in a hospital for the terminally ill in Paris, explains how to deal with death and the dying-how to avoid despair and find the strength to confront and accept death. Through stories of individual patients, the author shows how death can bring dignity and meaning into our lives. For anyone interested in the psychology of palliative care, this book is required reading.
