Monument, and the Cache-Wasatch National Forest. Also include Rock Art. The Second part consists of images taken for or used and for Windsinger Enterprises. The third part are images from Marines and cover specialized training, orienteering, and his time in Taiwan. The Fourth part are images of his family, his travels in Lillian Francuz. The fifth part are images he took for the Red I located in Idaho Falls. As well, Smith did quite a bit of outdoor in the Valley and while he was in the Marines. Some of the images pertain to environmental issues such as the Four Corners Power Plant.
