El Salvador. Landscape and society.

Author(s) : BROWNING, D.Book : El Salvador. Landscape and society. 1971 pp.xvi + 329 pp.

Abstract : El Salvador, the most densely populated nation of mainland America from its origins to the present day. The theme is man's changing views of his methods of exploiting it. Occupied by an unbroken sequence of human beings of different cultural backgrounds, and experiencing the introduction of a series of different forms of land use, settlements and tenure, El Salvador's current daunting problems can be adequately understood and resolved on the use and ownership of the land.
